DETAILED ACTION

The cancellation of claim 2 is noted.

The rejection of claims 23-29 under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Lipian et al U.S. patent 6,455,650 is withdrawn. The applicants' argument that Lipian discloses a process for polymerizing polycycloolefin monomers in the presence of high activity Group 10 catalyst system is persuasive.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1, 3-22 and 30-42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Lipian et al U.S. patent 6,455,650=WO 00/20472..

The rejection is set forth at pages 3-4 on the office action mailed on 09/24/2004 and it is incorporated here by reference.

3. Applicant's arguments filed Dec 20, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The present claims is a heterobifunctional monomer composition that is polymerizable in the presence of any catalyst. Lipian discloses a polymerizable polycycloolefin composition. The polycycloolefin monomers represented by the chemical structures VII and VII(a) at column 30 and column 32 are readable in the present claims for being a polymerizable heterobifunctional monomer in the present claims. The heterobifunctional monomer having a maleimide moiety is readable in applicants' claim 6.

Double Patenting

4. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

5. Claims 1-42 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-37 of U.S. Patent No. 6,423,780.

6. The rejection is set forth at pages 2-3 of the office action mailed on 09/24/2004 and it is incorporated here by reference. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claims 1-37 disclose a heterobifunctional monomer having the chemical structure that is readable in the present claims. The plurality of heterobifunctional monomers are polymerizing for producing a polymer block copolymer, wherein said polymer and block copolymer are analogous to the present claimed polymer and block copolymer. Claims 1-37 in Patent '780 also disclose a method for synthesizing heterobifunctional monomers and a method for producing a polymer having a heterobifunctional monomer by using a Ziegler-type catalyst. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to select the functional groups in the present claims for being the same as cited in claims 1-37 of Patent '780, and, thereby, obtain the same heterobifunctional monomer and a polymer produced from the same polymerizable monomer.

Conclusion

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

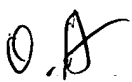

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
